Farmingville, NY - On Sunday, October 7, Councilwoman Jane Bonner will attend the Rocky Point Farmers and Artisans Market October Fest. The event, which runs from 8:00 am to 3:00 pm, will be held at the Town's Old Depot Park located at Broadway and Prince Road in Rocky Point.

"I look forward to seeing the community come out for the crafts, food, music and fun," said Councilwoman Bonner, "It's great that the Rocky Point Farmers Market has become such a popular destination for residents throughout Brookhaven and so many of the vendors are really making a name for themselves. This is a family event that I urge everyone to attend."

The Octoberfest will feature a variety of crafts for sale, locally made products, local fruits and vegetables, and more. There will be a pig roast by Naturally Grass Fed and entertainment by the Homegrown String Band performing traditional and original, high energy acoustic American roots music.
